FOREWORD

Upon the completion of the first forty volumes of its journal, The New Scholasticism, The American Catholic Philosophical Association presents this Index of volumes I-XL (1927-1966) to scholars in the field of philosophy.

In three indices, arranged respectively according to author, title, and subject, this volume lists all articles but not the chronicles and book reviews. The headings for the subject index are listed separately at the end of the volume.

The editors express their gratitude to Mrs. Edmund Kennedy for her assistance in the compilation of this Index.
